All modifications will be subject to a change order agreed upon in writing by both parties.

1.3 Terms additional to or different from those in these General Conditions, including but not limited to terms contained in Purchaser's Contract or any other document, are not considered unless otherwise accepted by Seller in writing. Seller's commencement of performance shall not constitute acceptance of any of Purchaser's terms and conditions. The contract is only valid and enforceable if and when Purchaser's accepts Seller's offer in writing. Seller's offer is only valid for a period of 90 days from the date the offer is submitted by Seller to Purchaser.

2 DRAWINGS AND DESCRIPTIVE DOCUMENTS

2.1 Any drawing of technical document intended for use in the design, construction or erection of the Works or of part thereof and submitted to Purchaser by Seller prior or subsequent to the formation of the Contract remain the exclusive property of Seller. They may not, without Seller's consent, be utilised by Purchaser or copied, reproduced, transmitted or communicated to a third party save for the sole purpose of operation and maintenance of the Works. However, the said plans and documents shall be the property of Purchaser:

- (b) if they are referable to a separate preliminary development contract on which no actual construction was to be performed and in which the property of Seller in the said plans and documents was not reserved.

4 TIME FOR DELIVERY, DELAY, LIQUIDATED DAMAGES FOR DELAY

4.2 If Seller anticipates that he will not be able to deliver the Works at the time for delivery, he shall forthwith notify Purchaser thereof in writing, stating the reason, and, if possible, the time when delivery can be expected.

4.3 If delay in delivery is caused by circumstances external to Seller and/or by an act or omission on the part of Purchaser (including but not limited to delay in approval of Contract documentation), the time for delivery shall automatically be extended by a period of time equivalent to the initial delay. This provision applies regardless of whether the reason for the delay occurs before or after the agreed time for delivery.

If Purchaser fails to accept delivery at the delivery time, he shall nevertheless pay any part of the purchase price which becomes due on delivery, as if delivery had taken place. Seller shall arrange for storage of the Works at the expense of Purchaser. Seller shall also, if Purchaser so requires, insure the Works at Purchaser's expense.

The liquidated damages shall not exceed five (5) per cent of the Contract price excluding taxes. Liquidated damages shall be sole and exclusive remedies for delay in delivery.

Purchaser shall forfeit his right to liquidated damages if he has not lodged a claim in writing for such damages within two weeks after the time when delivery should have taken place.

4.5 If the delay in delivery is such that Purchaser is entitled to maximum liquidated damages under Clause 4.4 and if the Works are still not delivered, Purchaser may in writing demand delivery within a final reasonable period which shall not be less than one week. If Seller does not deliver within such final period for reasons exclusively attributable to Seller, then Purchaser may by notice in writing to Seller terminate the contract in respect of such part of the Works that cannot in consequence of Seller's failure to deliver be used as intended by the parties. If Purchaser terminates the Contract, he shall be entitled to compensation for the loss he has suffered as a result of Seller's delay. The total compensation, including the liquidated damages which are payable under 4.4, shall not exceed ten (10) per cent the Contract price.

4.6 Liquidated damages under clause 4.4 and termination of the contract with limited compensation under 4.5 (if applicable) are the sole and exclusive remedies available to Purchaser in case of delay on the part of Seller. All other claims against Seller based on such delay shall be excluded.

4.7 If Purchaser anticipates that he will be unable to accept delivery of the Works at the delivery time, he shall forthwith notify Seller in writing thereof, stating the reason and, if possible, the time when he will be able to accept delivery. Any cost incurred by Seller in relation thereto will be reimbursed by Purchaser to Seller.

5.2 Unless otherwise agreed, Seller's invoices shall be paid by Purchaser within 30 days from the date of invoicing. Whatever the means of payment used, payment shall not be deemed to have been made before Seller's account has been fully and irrevocably credited.

5.3 If Purchaser delays in making any payment, Seller may suspend the performance of his own obligations until such payment is made, unless the failure of Purchaser is due to an act or omission of Seller and may request accordingly an adjustment of the performance schedule and/or compensation for the extra-costs resulting therefrom.

5.4 If Purchaser delays in making any payment, Seller shall on giving to Purchaser a 10 days notice in writing be entitled to the payment of interest on the sum due from the date on which such sum became due at a rate of 7 points above the EURIBOR rate in effect at the date of the invoice.
